PORT WASHINGTON, WI — Another respected Wisconsin law officer endorses Justice Daniel Kelly for Wisconsin Supreme Court. Ozaukee County Sheriff James Johnson issued this statement supporting Justice Kelly.

“My entire career as a law enforcement officer has been focused on upholding law and order and I can wholeheartedly say the same for Justice Kelly. He believes in making judicial decisions based on the law as written and not on what he thinks it should say. The next Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice should be someone who believes in the Constitution and decides cases according to the law without fear or favor.”

“When we in law enforcement make arrests, the expectation is that justice will be served, and judges and justices will hold those convicted accountable according to the law. We have the same expectation for our Supreme Court Justices. Daniel Kelly not only meets those expectations but exceeds them.”

Sheriff James Johnson has been in the Ozaukee County Sheriff's Office for nearly 32 years-the last 8 as Sheriff.
