

Dem Party ad highlights Kornblum's ties to Evers

Posted on Friday, Mar 11, 2022

The state Dem Party has launched a new digital ad backing 2nd District Court of Appeals candidate Lori Kornblum and touting her ties to Gov. Tony Evers.

The state party said its digital effort is a “significant” five-figure buy, but didn’t provide other details.

The effort includes a display ad that notes Kornblum — appointed to the bench in January — is the incumbent.

The narrator in the 15-second digital ad says Kornblum “shares our values and believes in our democracy.” The spot notes that Evers appointed her to the post and the narrator says it’s “critical” to keep her there.
