This week Democrats across the country stood together to tout how President Biden's American Rescue Plan has helped their communities since it was signed into law one year ago today – and put Republicans in the hot seat over their agenda of tax hikes and raised premiums for millions of Americans.

Here's a look at just some of what happened in the states this week...

Ahead of today's one year anniversary of President Biden signing the American Rescue Plan into law, Democrats across the country highlighted the contrast between Democrats' work to lower costs and Republicans' agenda of tax hikes and raised premiums:
