MADISON - The Department of Workforce Development (DWD) today released the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) estimates of unemployment and employment statistics for Wisconsin metropolitan areas, major cities and counties in Wisconsin for January 2022.

In brief, the nonseasonally adjusted data for Wisconsin shows:

- Metropolitan Statistical Areas: Preliminary January 2022 unemployment rates decreased in all 12 of Wisconsin's metro areas over the year and increased in all 12 metro areas over the month.
- Municipalities: Preliminary January 2022 unemployment rates declined in all of Wisconsin's 35 largest cities over the year and increased in all 35 cities over the month.
- Counties: Preliminary January 2022 unemployment rates declined in all 72 Wisconsin counties over the year and increased in all 72 counties over the month.
