APPLETON, Wis. (Feb. 3, 2022) – Becky Bartoszek, President/CEO, Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce, has been named chair-elect for the Wisconsin Chamber of Commerce Executives' (WCCE) Board of Advisors.

WCCE is the state's professional association of local chambers of commerce. Its mission is to advance the management skills and experience of its members in order to help them work with the challenges chambers face. WCCE is a program of Wisconsin Manufacturers & Commerce (WMC) – the state chamber.

Bartoszek will serve as chair elect for two years then assume the role of chair for the WCCE, where she will lead its Board of Advisors. She has been a WCCE advisory board member for 2 years, where she collaborates with other Chamber executives from around the state to ensure Wisconsin Chambers continue to help business and local communities thrive.

She also serves on the board of directors for ACCE, the Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives, an international group of more than 9,000 professionals who work for and with more than 1,600 chambers of commerce around the world.

Additionally she is on the board of directors for the New North; Wisconsin Manufacturers and Commerce; and Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives. Bartoszek is also a member of the Community Health Action Team. She currently is appointed by Wisconsin Gov. Tony Evers to the Advisory Council on Workforce Investment.
