MADISON — Gov. Tony Evers announced today that he is seeking applicants for the Kewaunee County Circuit Court. The appointment will fill a vacancy created by the passing of Judge Keith A. Mehn, who passed away at the age of 62 after being diagnosed with kidney cancer. The new judge will complete a term ending July 31, 2023.

“Judge Mehn was a respected attorney and judge who demonstrated a deep commitment to both his profession and his community,” said Gov. Evers. “We offer our sincerest condolences to the Mehn family, his colleagues and the Kewaunee County community, and all those who mourn his loss.”

To apply, please email a completed application form and supporting materials to GOVJudicialAppointments@wisconsin.gov. Applications must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Mon., Jan. 31, 2022.

The application can be found on the “Apply to Serve” page on Gov. Evers’ website at: www.evers.wi.gov.

Applicants with questions about the judicial selection process may contact the Governor’s Office of Legal Counsel at (608) 266-1212.
