What a night!

Thank you, voters of the 27th Senate District, for electing me to represent your values and priorities in the Wisconsin State Senate. I am humbled and truly honored by your support, and I will not let you down.

I wish to extend a special thanks to my family: my husband Bob, and our children Megan, Will, Annika, and Katie. You have supported and encouraged me throughout this challenging campaign, and I am so incredibly grateful.

I also thank my friend, Jon Erpenbach, who represented this area so well for so many years. Jon, your advice, guidance and continuous support was invaluable.

I want to thank everyone who knocked on doors throughout the 27th Senate District. The fantastic teams– Team Gold, Middleton, Waunakee, Verona, Mount Horeb–the Sauk County Democratic Party and the Columbia Democratic Party. You were invaluable.

Thank you to my yard sign crew: Sly, Bob, Sam, Nate, Dan (I'm looking at you!); Special thanks to my outstanding organizing team, my good friends Margie and Denise.

This victory is your victory, and we will move Wisconsin forward! From the bottom of my heart, THANK YOU!
