Middleton – State Representative Dave Considine (D – Baraboo) today announced his endorsement of State Representative Dianne Hesselbein for the 27th Senate District:

“I don’t normally endorse in primaries, but I’m making an exception for my friend Dianne Hesselbein who is running for state senate. As a retired educator, I watch Dianne fight for our Wisconsin public schools. She consistently supports legislation to put more dollars back into classrooms and give our teachers the resources they need to educate the next generation of Wisconsinites. Dianne and I share the experience of representing rural communities, and she understands the unique challenges our farmers and small towns face. Please join me in voting for Dianne on August 9th.”
