New Berlin – Former State Representative Mike Kuglitsch (R-New Berlin) gives his full endorsement to Rob Hutton, Republican candidate for the 5th Senate District. Rob Hutton is a life-long resident of this senate district, dedicated husband and father and successful business owner. He is active in our community and has prior legislative experience.

“Rob is an asset to myself and my former colleagues in the State Assembly. He’s a citizen legislator who brings his knowledge as a business owner to the Wisconsin State Capitol to help ensure our laws and policies will continue to grow our state’s economy.”

Mike Kuglitsch served five terms in the State Assembly representing the 84th Assembly District. He served in several leadership roles including president of the New Berlin Chamber of Commerce. Mike has retired from state politics and will not seek reelection this fall.
