Brookfield – Rob Hutton (R-Brookfield) released his statement on his victory to a four-year term to the State Senate today.

“I am grateful for the overwhelming support from the voters in the 5th Senate District.

“I am ready to lead on solutions that keep more tax dollars in the hands of our hardworking families, improve our educational achievements, and drive reforms that keep our communities safe for our citizens to work and play.

“I look forward to meeting and listening to the citizens of the 5th Senate District on their ideas to keep our communities safe, strong, and prosperous for the next generation.”

Rob Hutton will represent the 5th State Senate District. The district includes: the cities of Brookfield, New Berlin, Wauwatosa, and West Allis; the villages of Elm Grove and Waukesha; and the Town of Brookfield.
