Brookfield – State Senator Dale Kooyenga (R-Brookfield) is honored to endorse Rob Hutton to succeed him to represent the 5th Senate District. Rob Hutton is a life-long resident of the area and is a successful business owner. He served four terms in the State Assembly and has the business and legislative experience to deliver results in the state senate.

“I have known Rob for many years and know that he will be an excellent state senator. He is a dedicated family man and has a deep commitment to our community. He is a successful business owner and that gives him a valuable perspective. Rob has my full support for the State Senate. He will represent the district well.”

Dale Kooyenga served one term in the State Senate representing the 5th Senate District and four terms in the State Assembly representing the 14th Assembly District. Dale continues to serve our country as a Lt. Colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve. Dale is not running for elected office this fall.
