Milwaukee, WI – The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) Wisconsin State Conference — the statewide representative body for over 15,000 members of the IBEW, representing all IBEW Local Unions throughout the State of Wisconsin — has settled on their first round of electoral endorsements for the November 8th General Election:

- Wisconsin Governor – Governor Tony Evers
- Wisconsin Lieutenant Governor (LG) – State Representative Sara Rodriguez
- Wisconsin Attorney General (AG) – Attorney General Josh Kaul
- United States Senate – Lieutenant Governor Mandela Barnes
- Wisconsin Secretary of State – Secretary Doug La Follette

“The IBEW Wisconsin State Conference is proud to announce our endorsement of these working family supporting champions,” said State Conference President Dean A. Warsh.

“It is imperative that we send Governor Evers, AG Kaul and LG candidate State Rep. Sara Rodriguez back to Madison, so they can continue their work in fighting for the issues important to the working families of Wisconsin,” added Conference President Warsh.

“Equally as important is the opportunity to finally give Senator Baldwin a partner in Washington by electing LG Mandela Barnes as our next U.S. Senator, while also working to protect the integrity of our electoral process here in Wisconsin, by re-electing Secretary of State Doug La Follette. The IBEW will be mobilizing its 15,000 plus members across the state, to ensure we send these campaigns to victory on November 8th,” concluded Dean A. Warsh.

The IBEW Wisconsin State Conference serves as the statewide representative body of over 15,000 members of the IBEW and works to secure the greatest good, just legislation and policy on their behalf, while also promoting the interests and issues of organized IBEW workers in multiple sectors throughout Wisconsin.
