Milwaukee, Wis. – November 7, 2022 – The Independent Business Association of Wisconsin (IBAW) hosts “Inside Wisconsin’s Politics & Budget” on Friday, November 18, 2022, 7:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. Event will be held at the Wisconsin Club, 900 W Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis.

IBAW board member & Public Policy Committee member, Tom Parks, will go one-on-one with outgoing State Representative Dale Kooyenga to get an inside look at what all this will mean to Wisconsin businesses and residents.

Steve Kohlmann, Executive Director of IBAW, said, “With the state & national mid-term elections now over, the political landscape has changed, and some certainty has been established.

What does this mean for the businesses and families in Wisconsin? How will it impact your bottom line? What changes are in store?”

Since 1973, the Independent Business Association of Wisconsin (IBAW) was formed for small business owners to engage in conversation relating to legislation impacting the bottom-line costs of businesses throughout Wisconsin. IBAW is a venue for high-level CEOs, CFOs, COOs, other upper management and entrepreneurs to network, exchange business ideas, and become educated and involved on issues which impact their business. IBAW is time well spent!
