[Balsam Lake, Wis.] – Today, Adam Jarchow announced more endorsements from law enforcement, legislators, and grassroots leaders across Wisconsin. The announcement comes just two weeks after Jarchow announced that he raised over $300,000 within the first three months of his campaign for Attorney General and one week after rolling out his policy proposals that offer real world solutions to making Wisconsin communities safe again.

“We’re a little over three months into this race, and I’m absolutely blown away by the quick support we’ve received from law enforcement, elected officials, and grassroots leaders throughout the state,” said Jarchow. “As I travel to every corner of Wisconsin, there’s a unified passion for backing the badge and returning law and order to our communities. I look forward to the months ahead, and ultimately firing Josh Kaul in November.”
