OSHKOSH – Independent, Democratic, and Republican county sheriffs from all across Wisconsin are endorsing U.S. Senator Ron Johnson in his re-election campaign. Johnson is running against anti-law enforcement candidate Mandela Barnes who is running on ending cash bail, cutting the prison population by half, abolishing ICE, and defunding the police. And was caught lying about law enforcement endorsements again yesterday.

“I proudly endorse Senator Ron Johnson. He is a genuine friend to law enforcement and backs the badge,” said Walworth County Sheriff Kurt Picknell. “Senator Johnson has a proven track record of sponsoring and supporting legislation that clearly prioritizes law enforcement officers and the communities they serve. I trust him to always have the back of the hardworking men and women of law enforcement to keep our communities safe.”

can be frequent law enforcement contacts by his continued efforts and support of The Joseph Project, which connects people with opportunities for self-improvement and employment. I support Senator Johnson and would encourage your support too.”

“Senator Ron Johnson cares about the safety of the citizens in Wisconsin. His continued support of law enforcement and those that risk their lives every day to keep all of us safe is appreciated,” said La Crosse County Sheriff Jeff Wolf. “We need Senator Johnson to continue his efforts for all of us and I am proud to endorse him in the upcoming election.”
