OSHKOSH – U.S. Senator Ron Johnson (R-WI) is announcing that he has accepted all three Wisconsin television invitations to debate his opponent, Lt. Gov. Mandela Barnes. The three debates from the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association, WISN-12 Milwaukee, and TMJ-4 Milwaukee will all take place in October.

“We look forward to these opportunities to share with Wisconsin voters the truth about Lt. Gov. Barnes’ desire to defund the police, abolish ICE, raise taxes and crush Wisconsin’s economy with the Green New Deal. He’s been hiding from the public for too long and he needs to answer for these extreme positions.” – Ben Voelkel, senior advisor for the Johnson campaign
