[Waukesha, Wis.] — Rebecca Kleefisch’s campaign for governor announced the support of more than 100 local Wisconsin current and former elected officials from across the state on Thursday.

“Our campaign to take back Wisconsin is growing every day,” Rebecca Kleefisch said. “I’m honored to have the endorsement of more than 100 local elected officials from across Wisconsin who were concerned about the direction of our state and decided to fight back. Together this fall, we will beat Tony Evers and take back our economy, our streets, and our government.”

In the 2022 spring elections, Rebecca supported more than 100 candidates for local elected offices across Wisconsin – helping them to take back control at the local level. Now many of those same volunteers and activists are throwing their support behind Rebecca for Governor.
