[Waukesha, WI] – The Conservative Political Action Coalition (CPAC) announced their endorsement of Rebecca Kleefisch for Governor of Wisconsin today, providing further evidence that Kleefisch is the choice of the grassroots conservative movement.

“Rebecca Kleefisch is an unwavering conservative leader for WI,” CPAC Chairman Matt Schlapp said in a tweet. “Her previous service as Lt. Gov shows Rebecca knows how to get the job done. She will defend the rights of parents and get the economy back on track. CPAC endorses Rebecca Kleefisch to be the next Gov. of Wisconsin.”

CPAC’s endorsement adds to the growing conservative coalition throwing support behind Kleefisch’s campaign for governor including Gov. Scott Walker, Iowa Gov. Kim Reynolds, Trump Press Secretary Sarah Huckabee Sanders, Trump Deputy National Security Advisor K.T. McFarland, Ted Nugent, Wisconsin Family Action, and Wisconsin Right to Life.
