[Waukesha, WI] – Rebecca Kleefisch is calling on Tony Evers to protect Wisconsin pro-life groups from terrorism after a leftist group took responsibility for the attack on Wisconsin Family Action. The radical organization promised to continue their attacks on more pro-life groups throughout the state.

“Tony Evers and Josh Kaul need to immediately take all actions necessary to protect Wisconsin pro-life groups from terrorism,” said Rebecca Kleefisch, candidate for governor. “The Evers Administration’s typical weak statements and absent leadership won’t be enough to protect pro-life groups from these violent threats. I stand with Wisconsinites who defend the right to life in their mission and will fight for law and order.”

The Wisconsin State Journal reported Tuesday that an organization called “Jane’s Revenge” took responsibility for the attack on Wisconsin Family Action, promising that their first attack “was only a warning.” The group demanded that other pro-life groups disband within 30 days.
