Waukesha, Wis.] — Wisconsin gubernatorial candidate Rebecca Kleefisch released the following statement on Thursday about how she will win the race for Wisconsin governor:

“If I know one thing about President Trump, it’s that he likes winners, and I’m the only person in this race who has won statewide — not once, but four times.

“Our campaign will win this primary with our hardworking team of activists, volunteers and grassroots efforts. Then we will beat Tony Evers. And we will help Wisconsin families and workers win by securing our elections, making gas and groceries affordable again, restoring law and order, and putting parents back in charge of our schools.”
