[Waukesha, WI] – The Wisconsin Game Preserve Association is endorsing Rebecca Kleefisch’s campaign for Wisconsin Governor. Kleefisch is a dedicated supporter of Wisconsin’s sporting heritage and a strong backer of the Second Amendment.

“Rebecca Kleefisch is a proud supporter of Wisconsin hunters and our way of life. She has always been a friend of the Association,” said Tim Zindl, president of the Wisconsin Game Preserve Association. “As governor, we know Rebecca will always protect Wisconsin’s sporting heritage and that she understands the issues that we care about. We are proud to endorse Rebecca for governor.”

“I’m from a hunting family. I will always defend the rights of gun owners and the Wisconsin traditions that we all value,” Rebecca said in a statement. “I’m honored to have the endorsement of the Wisconsin Game Preserve Association and will always stand with Wisconsin’s hunters.”
