Wisconsin Attorney General Josh Kaul has endorsed Judge Lori Kornblum in her campaign for the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, District 2.

“At a time when our most fundamental freedoms are being challenged, we need to keep Judge Lori Kornblum serving Wisconsinites on the Court of Appeals,” Attorney General Kaul said. “Judge Kornblum has spent her career protecting children, upholding the Constitution, and standing up for the rule of law. I’m proud to support her in this race.”

“It is an honor to have earned the support of the State’s top law enforcement official,” Judge Kornblum said. “As a former federal prosecutor and voting rights litigator, and now as Attorney General, Josh Kaul has fought crime and stood for equal justice under the law.”

Judge Kornblum will be on the April 5 ballot in a 12-county area including Calumet, Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Kenosha, Manitowoc, Ozaukee, Racine, Kenosha, Walworth, Washington, Waukesha, and Winnebago counties. More information can be found at her website, www.electjudgelorikornblum.com.
