MADISON, WI -With today's release of Waukesha County's canvassing results, only three counties have yet to finalize, verify, and certify their unofficial vote totals — Milwaukee, Monroe and Washington Counties. Following Waukesha County's announcement, Doug La Follette declared victory in the race, issuing the following statement:

“This is a victory for the people of Wisconsin, who chose to keep the supervision of elections out of the hands of corrupting partisan influences. I am excited to move forward working with Gov Evers and the Republicans in the State Legislature to secure the resources and staff the office requires to provide the services that we are obligated to the people of Wisconsin. We need to move this office out of the basement and let it work for the people. I also am looking forward to continuing my work to protect and preserve the absolute splendor of the natural resources of our state.”
