Milwaukee - Today, the Marquette University Law School released a new poll showing the Democratic Primary for U.S. Senate is still in a statistical dead heat. Since last fall, Alex Lasry has continued to gain in the polls, positioning the election in a virtual tie.

“Like every recent poll in this race has shown, this new poll shows the Democratic Primary in a statistical tie, and Alex Lasry has the momentum to win,” said Campaign Manager Garren Randolph. “Lasry has gained the most ground since the first Marquette poll and continues to rise. It’s clear that voters are responding to his proven record of delivering real results for working Wisconsinites.”

The Democratic Primary Election for the United States Senate will be held Tuesday, August 9th, 2022. For more information about Alex Lasry’s campaign, visit www.alexlasry.com.
