Madison, WI- Amy Loudenbeck, Republican candidate for Secretary of State, has received the endorsement of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation's political action arm, the Volunteers for Agriculture Committee.

"As a legislator, I have had the privilege of representing a district with deep roots in agriculture and advocating for policies that support farmers and farm communities for the past 12 years. I am honored to receive the endorsement of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau which represents over 46,000 member family farms across the state.

"I married into a farm family, and I have witnessed firsthand the challenges they face. They work hard every single day and are respected members of our communities. Everyone in Wisconsin deserves a Secretary of State who works hard and earns their paycheck. Farmers know I share their strong work ethic and will restore purpose and respect to this constitutional office which has been neglected for far too long."
