The Wisconsin Grocers Association (WGA) Board of Directors unanimously voted to endorse Amy Loudenbeck for Wisconsin Secretary of State.

Michelle Kussow, WGA's Executive Vice President said, "The WGA has had a strong working relationship with Amy Loudenbeck while she served in the Assembly. We are confident in her abilities and believe she will elevate and modernize the office of Secretary of State."

"Independent grocers and the retail grocery industry across the state have been working hard to keep their shelves stocked and serve their customers; I share their unwavering commitment to Wisconsin residents and their strong work ethic and am honored to receive their endorsement," commented Loudenbeck regarding the endorsement.
