Madison- Amy Loudenbeck (R-Clinton) has secured the endorsement of several prominent Wisconsin Republicans as well as over 70% of all current Republican members of the Wisconsin State Legislature for her campaign for Secretary of State.

“My supporters know I’m the best candidate to not only win the August primary, but the November general election. I’ve always worked hard to win my elections, but also to ensure things actually get done. I have a strong record of supporting conservative reforms during my 12 years of service in the Legislature, as well as a proven record of getting bills passed and working with my colleagues to address the many complex challenges facing our state,” said Loudenbeck.

“People are excited about the race for Secretary of State because they see an opportunity to make this office work again; and they see a credible and accountable alternative to the appointed and unaccountable Wisconsin Election Commission which is clearly broken and cannot be fixed.”

New endorsement of Amy Loudenbeck for Secretary of State include:

Diane Hendricks

The Honorable Governor Tommy Thompson

Former State Treasurer Cate Zeuske

Former Assembly Speaker Mike Huebsch

Congressman Tom Tiffany (WI-07)

Sen. Julian Bradley (R-Franklin)

Rep. Scott Krug (R-Nekoosa)

Sen. Rob Stafsholt (R-New Richmond)

Rep. David Steffen (R-Green Bay)
