Lucas calls to remember legacy Stinson left behind

MILWAUKEE – Earnell Lucas, Milwaukee County Sheriff and candidate for mayor of Milwaukee, today issued the following statement regarding Ceasar Stinson’s death two years later:

“Today marks a somber moment in the lives of many in Milwaukee. Two years ago today, we tragically lost the life of a friend, brother, and beloved member of our community, Ceasar Stinson. Ceasar was an amazing individual and dedicated servant leader in our community. His life positively impacted countless individuals across this city. His untimely death is one that has left an enormous hole in the hearts of many.

“Today, we honor the man he was, the lives he changed, and the youth he fought for. Let us remember him, not only in words but in actions. Let us remember the legacy Ceasar Stinson left behind, and do our part to fulfill it.”
