On the inclusion of a Billionaire's tax in the Presidential Budget Proposal today, Main Street Alliance's Executive Director Chanda Causer had this to say:

"Main Street Alliance applauds President Biden for centering an equitable tax code in his budget, and small businesses across the country are ready to get this over the finish line. Biden's budget proposal, including a Billionaire Minimum Income Tax, is critical to ensuring the ultra wealthy pay their fair share, resulting in healthier main streets and communities. While America's billionaires increased their wealth by trillions of dollars during the pandemic, hundreds of thousands of small businesses closed. The Billionaire Minimum Income Tax is an investment in our local economies and small businesses, and will help level the playing field for future generations."
