Menomonie, WI—Today, Congresswoman Lois Frankel endorsed Deb Baldus McGrath in her campaign for Wisconsin's third Congressional District. Deb is a former Army Captain, CIA officer, and working mother of three. Congresswoman Lois Frankel represents Florida's 21st congressional district.

"Deb Baldus McGrath has the courage, conviction, and compassion that we need from our elected leaders," said Congresswoman Lois Frankel. "Deb has been a pioneer for women through her service as an Army Captain and CIA officer. She has a deep commitment to western central Wisconsin and to our nation, and will fight for lower prescription drug costs, women's reproductive healthcare, and an economy that works for everyone. I am proud to endorse her for Wisconsin's third congressional district."

"It is an honor to be endorsed by Representative Lois Frankel," said Deb Baldus McGrath. "Her decades of advocacy for women's rights, accessible health care, and LGBTQIA rights is inspiring. Her support is indispensable as I fight to lower prescription drug costs, for a livable wage for every worker, and clean energy investments to Wisconsin's third Congressional District."

Congresswoman Frankel joins a growing list of local and national supporters. McGrath has also received backing from Congresswoman Abigail Spanberger, Congressman Seth Moulton, VoteVets, Elect Democratic Women, Former Assemblymember Dana Wachs, La Crosse School Board President Dr. Juan F. Jimenez, and Eau Claire City Council Members Rod Jones, Emily Berge, Emily Anderson, and Joshua Miller, and more.
