Menomonie, WI—Today, community leaders, farmers, and small business owners from across Wisconsin's third Congressional district endorsed Deb McGrath for Congress. Deb McGrath is a former Army Captain, retired CIA Officer, and mom of three.

"I am touched by the leadership and service these local leaders give our community, and honored to be endorsed by such an essential group. Witnessing their grassroots efforts to better Wisconsin is inspiring, and I am privileged to have their support," said Deb McGrath. "These farmers, business owners, and activists' contributions to our community are indispensable as I fight to bring accessible health care, larger investments in education, and broadband access to Wisconsin. I am delighted to have them by my side."
