Menomonie, WI—Today, Eau Claire City Councilmember Joshua Miller endorsed Deb McGrath in her campaign for Wisconsin's third Congressional District. Deb is a former Army Captain, CIA officer, and working mother of three. Councilmember Joshua Miller is an at-large City Councilmember for the City of Eau Claire.

"I am delighted to be endorsed by Eau Claire City Councilmember Joshua Miller," said Deb McGrath. "I am inspired by his passion to improve the Eau Claire community and his work in support of Wisconsin's families and businesses. His support is key as I fight for lower drug prices and work across the aisle to get real economic relief for Wisconsin families."

"Deb McGrath has the experience and integrity to represent my city of Eau Claire, the state of Wisconsin, and the nation with honor. I'm proud to endorse her for Congress," said Eau Claire City Councilmember Joshua Miller. "Deb's service to our country as an Army Captain and in the CIA proves she has the resolve to stand up for what is right. From education and healthcare access, to protecting our environment while investing in green jobs, and supporting our agricultural and dairy farms, Deb will be the strong and upright leader Wisconsin's third Congressional district deserves."

Councilmember Miller joins Eau Claire City Councilmembers Emily Berge, Emily Anderson, and Rod Jones in endorsing Deb McGrath for Congress.
