Menomonie, WI—Today, Eau Claire City Councilmember Kate Beaton endorsed Deb Baldus McGrath for Congress. Deb is a former Army Captain, CIA officer, and working mom of three. Councilmember Kate Beaton has held an at large position on the Eau Claire City Council since 2016.

“As a City Councilmember, I know it takes hard work, dedication, and honesty to successfully represent your community, and Deb Baldus McGrath has all of these qualities,” said Eau Claire City Councilmember Kate Beaton. “She will be a strong voice for lowering the cost of prescription drug prices, fighting for women’s reproductive rights, and protecting our environment while generating good paying, green jobs. Deb is the leader WI-03 deserves, and I am proud to endorse her for Congress.”

“I am honored to be endorsed by Eau Claire City Councilmember Kate Beaton,” said Deb Baldus McGrath. “Her advocacy protecting the health and safety of Eau Claire residents inspires me as I fight to bring affordable health care, investments in clean energy, and a livable wage to western central Wisconsin. I am proud to have her by my side in our campaign.”
