

McGrath campaign: Stevens Point Alderperson and Council President Meleesa Johnson endorses Deb Baldus McGrath for Congress

Posted on Monday, Jul 11, 2022

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Menomonie, WI—Today, Deb Baldus McGrath, candidate for Wisconsin's third Congressional district, was endorsed by Stevens Point Alderperson and Council President Meleesa Johnson. Deb is a former Army Captain, CIA officer, and working mom of three.

"From the first time I met and spoke with Deb Baldus McGrath I knew she was an extraordinary person. After getting to know her and better understanding her position on critical state and national policies, my first impression is now underscored by a belief that she is the 'right stuff' to serve the people of Wisconsin's 3rd Congressional District. Deb exemplifies dedicated service and commitment to family, community and country," said Stevens Point Alderperson and Council President Meleesa Johnson. "I have been a local elected official for over seven years and worked as a public employee for nearly 20 years. I know what it takes to properly serve our community. That is why I am so proud to endorse Deb Baldus McGrath for Congress. Deb will fight to lower prescription drug prices, improve healthcare in rural areas, and fight inflation for residents of the third Congressional District. Join me in voting for Deb Baldus McGrath!"

"I am honored to earn Stevens Point Alderperson and Council President Meleesa Johnson's endorsement, and am inspired by her advocacy for protecting the environment," said Deb Baldus McGrath. "Meleesa is a leader in central Wisconsin, and I'm proud to have her support as I run to represent the third Congressional District."