Posted on Friday, Jul 8, 2022

GOP gov candidate Tim Michels released a new TV ad today touting his time guarding the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and saying he's running for governor "to help save the America that those before saved for us."

The campaign didn't immediately release details on the buy.

The spot features Michels talking directly to the camera saying "America is a miracle of countless sacrifices from unknown patriots. Honoring that is our duty." He adds America is "under attack by radicals trying to tear down everything that makes America great. This is a fight we cannot lose."
