WEST ALLIS, Wisc. - In response to today's Marquette Poll release, the Michels for Governor campaign released the following statement from Campaign Manager Patrick McNulty:

“These numbers tell us what we have known all along - the race will be extremely close. Governor Evers and his allies are pulling out all the desperate smears and dirty tricks as he limps to the end of his campaign. Tony Evers has failed. In just six months, Tim Michels has built a broad coalition of Wisconsinites ready for proven leadership that will strengthen our economy, reduce crime, and empower parents in our education system. The momentum is on our side in the final stretch. We look forward to deeming Evers non-essential on Election Day.”

About Tim Michels:

Tim Michels is a proven business leader and veteran running for Governor of Wisconsin. Tim is a successful leader from outside the political establishment who is poised to clean up the mess in Madison and get Wisconsin back on the right track. After serving in the Army for 12 years, Michels worked with his brothers to run Michels Corporation, which in the last 25 years has grown from a few hundred employees to a nationally-admired, multi-faceted construction company that employs more than 8,000 people. A native of Brownsville in Dodge County, Tim resides in Waukesha County with his wife Barbara. They have three adult children.
