Move being made in an abundance of caution due to law enforcement investigation in the area

MILWAUKEE (January 26, 2022) – Milwaukee Public Schools announced, in an abundance of caution, both Burbank and MacDowell Montessori Schools have transitioned to virtual learning due to an ongoing investigation with law enforcement in the area.

Students and families can expect additional outreach from their child's teacher on instructions for virtual learning. Staff who are in need of access to technology for virtual learning are welcome to use either North Division or Hamilton High School for support.

Families can receive breakfast and lunch from an MPS school close to their home.
