MILWAUKEE (June 8, 2022) – Milwaukee Public Schools (MPS) is excited to start the first session of Summer Academy for students Thursday, June 9, 2022. Summer Academy is for all students who wish to catch up, get ahead, or simply continue learning during summer break. Available summer programs include credit recovery, credit acceleration, specialty courses, a virtual program for working high school students, summer internships, and summer exploration camps. New this year—dual credit courses will allow students to earn both high school and college credit. Media will have an opportunity to tour classrooms and learn about summer offerings in MPS. Those interested in coverage should RSVP at armsev@milwaukee.k12.wi.us.
