Windsor, WI – Today, Justice Louis Butler, the first (and only) Black Justice to serve on the Wisconsin Supreme Court, endorsed Judge Everett Mitchell for Supreme Court. Justice Butler and Judge Mitchell issued the following statements.

“It’s my honor to be able to support Judge Mitchell for Wisconsin Supreme Court. Anyone who knows Judge Mitchell knows how genuine, thoughtful, and pragmatic he is as a jurist. I’ve seen the work Judge Mitchell has done on the bench and I’m excited to see what he’ll be able to do as our next Supreme Court Justice,” said Justice Butler.

“I am honored to receive the endorsement of Justice Louis Butler. His leadership, insight, guidance and mentorship over the years has given me hope and inspiration. As a leader on the bench as well as in the Wisconsin community, Justice Butler reflects the ideals that continue to make Wisconsin’s court just and fair. I look forward to building on the history and walking the path he has blazed.”
