Tomorrow, November 4, NextGen America and MoveOn Political Action will host special guest Sen. Bernie Sanders for youth voter mobilization rallies in Eau Claire, La Crosse, and Madison. The rallies, held at UW-Eau Claire, UW-La Crosse, and the Orpheum Theater, will feature live music, free swag, and celebrity appearances.

The evening rally at the Orpheum Theater in Madison will feature a special headlining performance from two-time Grammy Award nominated rapper Cordae.

“Young people across this country have the power to determine its future by voting in this November’s election,” said Cordae. “We must not idly stand by and put it in the hands of fate — we must Vote.Fight.Win.”

These events are part of NextGen and MoveOn’s nine-stop “Our Future is Now” tour, which will harness the power of young voters ahead of Election Day by boosting energy and ensuring attendees make a plan and pledge to vote. Additional rallies include a stop in Michigan on Saturday, followed by two final rallies in Pennsylvania on Sunday.
