Washington, D.C. – Mandela Barnes is the Democrat candidate for Wisconsin's U.S. Senate seat and is far too liberal and out of touch with Wisconsinites for it. To prove it, we will show you just how the Badger State would look under the Barnes Brigade.

Under the Barnes Brigade, the Green New Deal will be forced on Wisconsinites.

According to the National Journal earlier this year:

Wisconsin Lt. Gov. Mandela Barnes, the early front-runner for the Democratic nomination for Senate, is a Green New Deal-supporting, single-payer health care-backing, cash-bail-opposing candidate championed by Sen. Elizabeth Warren.

Barnes once said in a statement: "As I've done throughout my career, I'll fight to bring common sense solutions to the United States Senate like ... a green new deal that benefits the people of Wisconsin and creates good jobs right here at home..."

But the Democrats' radical plan to resurrect the Green New Deal will destroy American energy jobs and fundamentally change our country.

Statement from NRSC Spokeswoman Lizzie Litzow: "Mandela Barnes has been pretty clear that he wants to bring the Green New Deal to Wisconsin. But does he know that's not what Wisconsinites want? Barnes' plans for the state are far too liberal and his ideas are simply out-of-touch with Wisconsin families."
