Washington, D.C. – Mandela Barnes is the Democrat candidate for Wisconsin's U.S. Senate seat and is far too liberal and out of touch with Wisconsinites for it. To prove it, we will show you just how the Badger State would look under the Barnes Brigade.

Under the Barnes Brigade, Medicare-for-all would be forced on Wisconsinites. Barnes is a big supporter of this socialist policy, and not just because of the endorsements from socialist politicians and groups.

- In a statement, Barnes said, “as I’ve done throughout my career, I’ll fight to bring common sense solutions to the United States Senate like a Medicare for all plan that helps us realize the dream of health care for every American...”
- According to the National Journal: “Wisconsin Lt. Gov. Mandela Barnes... is a Green New Deal-supporting, single-payer health care-backing, cash-bail-opposing candidate championed by Sen. Elizabeth Warren.”

This political stance on healthcare would strip private health insurance away from millions and kill thousands of jobs. Just a couple of things that Wisconsin families do NOT want.

Statement from NRSC Spokeswoman Lizzie Litzow: “Mandela Barnes supports stripping health care away from millions and killing thousands of jobs across the country. That is the opposite of what Wisconsin families want, but Barnes is too out-of-touch to know that. The Badger State does not want to head down the socialist path Barnes wants to put them on.”
