Washington, D.C. – Yesterday, Mandela Barnes came out in favor of abortion up until the moment of birth.

According to the Eau Claire Leader Telegram, “in questions with the media after the session, Barnes rejected the idea of a timeframe cap where abortion would be banned, whether it is 16 weeks, 20 weeks, or later into a pregnancy.”

That is as extreme a position as you can take and is in line with his other extreme, liberal views.

He is a dangerous Democrat, and we look forward to hearing more from him on this during tomorrow’s debate.
