Washington, D.C. - Joe Biden spent his Labor Day weekend travelling to Wisconsin and Pennsylvania to campaign for the Democrats' Far-Left Senate candidates. Joe Biden wants Mandela Barnes and John Fetterman to win because they'll be rubber stamps for his radical agenda. Biden said he would want John Fetterman in a foxhole with him. Even Biden knows that John Fetterman won't hesitate to pull a loaded shotgun on unarmed joggers.

Joe Biden and Senate Democrats' agenda is hurting American families. Prices are at record highs, there's a crisis at the Southern Border, and Democrats are hiring 87,000 new IRS agents to go after middle-class Americans. Pennsylvania and Wisconsin literally can't afford to send two more radical Senators to Washington.

Mandela Barnes and John Fetterman might not want to be seen on the campaign trail with Joe Biden. But, at the end of the day, everyone knows that they'll be a rubber stamp for Biden's radical agenda. That's why Biden is campaigning for them.
