

NRSC: Tax Day reminder: WI Dems are tax cheats

Posted on Monday, Apr 18, 2022

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Washington, D.C. - Today is Tax Day and there's no better time to remind everyone that Wisconsin Democrat Senate candidates - Sarah Godlewski, Alex Lasry and Mandela Barnes - are tax cheats.

Sarah Godlewski: The Wisconsin State Treasurer, no less, owed and was caught failing to pay state income taxes for TWO years in 2017 and 2018.

Alex Lasry: Spoiled rich kid Lasry was caught receiving property tax breaks in TWO states - NY and WI - benefitting him to the tune of $24,000. According to the law in both states, this tax break is reserved for PRIMARY residents. But being Wall Street's favorite candidate, Lasry couldn't let go of his New York ties that fast.

Mandela Barnes: Lieutenant Governor Barnes didn't file state income tax returns during his 2018 campaign for Lt. Gov. This was exposed the same week he claimed a reason he is running for U.S. Senate is to make certain "wealthy people and corporations are paying their fair share" in taxes.

Statement from NRSC Spokeswoman Lizzie Litzow: "Happy Tax Day from Wisconsin Democrats - taxes for thee, not for me!"