WASHINGTON — One Nation, a public policy organization dedicated to promoting commonsense legislative solutions, continued its previously-announced advocacy effort in Wisconsin urging Senator Ron Johnson to keep fighting inflation by stopping liberal spending. The new advertisement, “Morgan,” features a Wisconsin mother talking about the impact of inflation on her family’s budget. This is the fourth spot in the series and goes live statewide in Wisconsin today.

The script of the advertisement can be found below:

[Morgan J] I’m a mom of four kids.

We have one in high school, a toddler, and our latest addition: seven-month-old twins.

I can appreciate the impacts of inflation.

DC liberals just keep spending.

All that money isn’t free – and families are paying the price.

Senator Ron Johnson is fighting to help Wisconsin families.

He voted against reckless spending that caused inflation, and to cut waste in Washington.

Tell Senator Ron Johnson to keep fighting to stop the spending and hold DC liberals accountable.
