BROOKFIELD, WI — Navy veteran and small business leader Tom Palzewicz announced today the launch of his campaign for State Senate to represent Wisconsin's 5th District.

"The great people of Milwaukee's western suburbs deserve a Senator who will work just as hard as they do," said Palzewicz. "I have always been the kind of person to step up, take initiative, and get things done. Now more than ever, there's a real need for effective leadership to break through the partisan bickering that has gridlocked our state government.

"I'm ready to bring bipartisan, common-sense solutions to the State Capitol so we can solve the most pressing challenges facing our great state, together."

Tom Palzewicz served our nation in the U.S. Navy for six years. He received his Bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and worked in banking before starting his own small business 17 years ago. Tom's business focuses on helping other small businesses thrive, and his clients have created more than 500 jobs in southeastern Wisconsin. He and his wife Terri live in Brookfield where they raised their three children.
