LA CROSSE — Today, State Senator and nominee for Congress Brad Pfaff announced that the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO had endorsed his campaign.

“I’m proud to have the endorsement of an organization that works tirelessly to ensure Wisconsin working families have the opportunities they need and deserve,” said Brad Pfaff. “I’m running to bring western Wisconsin values to Washington and bring real solutions home to working Wisconsinites. With the support of the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO, my campaign will make this goal a reality.”

“As Senator for Wisconsin’s 32nd senate district, Brad Pfaff has a 100 percent Wisconsin AFL-CIO working families voting record,” said Stephanie Bloomingdale, President of the Wisconsin AFL-CIO. “We know that once in Congress, Senator Pfaff will continue to fight for the rights of all Wisconsin workers in order to advance a fair and just economy. As a lifelong Wisconsinite, Brad Pfaff deeply understands the issues facing Wisconsin working people and will prioritize the needs of all working families.”

This endorsement is the latest in a long list of supporters – from elected officials to community leaders to national organizations – that are lining up to support Brad’s campaign in November because he is the right choice for working Wisconsinites. As a tireless advocate for working families throughout his public service career, Brad knows that Congress should be doing more for hardworking Wisconsinites, especially with Labor Day just a few days away. With the WI AFL-CIO’s support, Brad is poised to win in November and deliver results that improve the lives of working people.
