[Fox Crossing, WI] - Rachael Cabral-Guevara (R-Fox Crossing), Republican candidate for the 19th Senate District, announces today the endorsement of her campaign by Outagamie County Sheriff Clint Kriewaldt.

“I’m extremely honored to receive the endorsement of Sheriff Kriewaldt, he does an incredible job serving and protecting us”, said Rachael Cabral-Guevara. She later added, “It’s now more important than ever to commit to safe communities. In Madison, I’m going to support and look out for our law enforcement, just as they do for all of us.”

“Rachael is strongly committed to our public safety and she would serve us well in the State Senate”, said Sheriff Kriewaldt. “She has the proven track record of supporting law enforcement officers and our efforts to keep our communities safe. I’m proud to endorse her.”

Rachael Cabral-Guevara is the State Representative of the 55th Assembly District. She is also a Nurse Practitioner, experienced small business owner, former educator, and mother of four.
