EMILY's List, the nation's largest resource for women in politics, has endorsed Melissa Ratcliff for Wisconsin State Assembly, District 46.

"EMILY's List is proud to endorse Melissa Ratcliff for Wisconsin's 46th Assembly District," said Sarah Curmi, Vice President of State and Local Campaigns at EMILY's List. "As a three-time supervisor on the Dane County Board and a paralegal with decades of experience, she deeply understands the most pressing issues impacting her district and will make an excellent representative in the state Assembly. We are thrilled to see what she will accomplish for AD-46."

"Heading into the November election, it is an honor to have EMILY's List standing with me," Melissa Ratcliff said. "Voters will have a clear choice on November 8. I look forward to continuing to focus on the issues that matter most to residents in this district including defending reproductive rights, ending gun violence, ensuring LGBTQIA+ rights, supporting our public schools, and protecting our environment."

Founded in 1985, Emily's list encompasses a grassroots community of over five million members and helps Democratic women win campaigns across the country and up and down the ballot.
